

Year 11 Curriculum Map: English Language & Literature

Sept - Oct 7 weeks An Inspector Calls Language Paper 1	Nov - Dec 7 weeks Macbeth Language Paper 2	Jan - Feb 6 weeks Anthology Poetry Language Paper 1	Feb - Apr 6 weeks Jekyll & Hyde LANGUAGE Paper 2	Summer 1: Apr - May 5 weeks Revision
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 4 weeks to be spent reading the text - Looking at characterisation, structure, setting & contextual factors - How to write an exam answer 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Reread the text – key extracts - Look at characterisation, context, themes and dramatic devices 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Revise the poems - Exam preparation - Language and structure analysis - Writing exam answers 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Revise the text and look at key events - Exam preparation - Quotation analysis 	Staff to use QLA to decide areas of weakness for their students and teach to this.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Introduction to language exam - Reading & understanding extracts - Question overview - Teach question by question 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Introduction to language exam - Reading & understanding extracts - Question overview - Teach question by question 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Recap language questions - Focus on any areas of weakness - Revise question strategies 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Recap language questions - Focus on any areas of weakness - Revise question strategies 	